

Where are you from? Where do you live?

I'm from a little town between Reggio Emilia and Parma. I live in Milan and Reggio Emilia but I spend a lot of time in Beirut.

- How old are you?

I'm 36 years old.

- How do you pay your bills? Are you working as a professional photographer?

I have some agency like Blobcg in Italy and Gettyimages and Gallery Stock abroad. In the last year I dealt more with galleries,

- What cameras do you use?

I tend to use a Makina Plaubel 670 and a Fuji 6x9, for architecture a Silvestri T30 6x9.

- Any photographer or artist inspiring you?

I love many photographers but from a couple of years I'm more inspired by novel or paint. As writer I love Murakami Aruki, he has been part of my life since 2004 when I started my research on Tokyo.

This body of work will appear in my website at the beginning of next year and will become a book in the 2011. About painting, I'm always seeing the paint from Ukyo-e period.

- What/who do you enjoy to shoot the most?

I enjoyed shoot in the biggest city of Asia in the last 7 years, my favorite place. Now I'm working to expand my feeling and my ability in new reality just close to me.

- Do you believe in god?

I believe in everything.

- What do you drink on a night out?

Strong beer and wine.

- Do you like dancing?

Yes. In a real place for dance or at home with friends

- What's your favourite first name?

Luna

- Are you a fashion addicted?

No.

- What's your favourite tv series?

I have no one.

- Recommend us a book.

“Una notte in cui la luna non è storta” by Dai Sijie and “ A sud del Confine a Ovest del Sole” by Aruki Murakami, L'ignoranza by Milan Kundera

- What's the country of your dreams?

A place where I can use perfectly the languages.

- Have you ever been to Iceland?

No I never been.

What song would you choose for a slideshow of your work?

Mixed song between James Blake and Sakamoto

Ask you a question. Tell me your answer (like Marzullo does)

What is your idea of happiness ?

Be able to share without any kind of aspection

www.alessandrorizzi.com